Exam/Test Preparation Workshop:

Preparing for End of year Exams and Tests

Is your child struggling to prepare for upcoming tests or exams? Are they experiencing feelings of stress or being overwhelmed with exams?

Join us at CNLD Testing and Therapy for our spring workshop focusing on developing skills and strategies for exam preparation. The workshop will focus on:

- Planning, prioritization, time management and organizational skills in regards to test preparation
- Develop understanding of effective study strategies

This workshop will use the Seeing My Time® and Rush Neurobehavior Executive Function curriculums to guide students in learning effective planning and study strategies that support their preparation for Exams.

The workshop is facilitated by Courtney Wilkens, MA. Ed. Courtney is a MI licensed educator with over 20 years teaching experience K-12 public schools. Courtney has completed training in the Executive Function Success Seeing My Time® and Rush Neurobehavioral Curriculums® and is an Executive Function Coach at CNLD Testing and Therapy.
